

Journal of the Japanese Society for Artificial Intelligence

Vol. 24 No. 5 (Sept. 2009)

CONTENTS

Special Issue: "Japanese Corpus"

Editor's Introduction to "Japanese Corpus"	Yuji Matsumoto	615
Compilation of the Balanced Corpus of Contemporary Written Japanese	Kikuo Maekawa	616
Compilation of Balanced Book Corpus of Contemporary Written Japanese	Makoto Yamazaki	623
Corpus Annotation and Annotation-Assistance Tools	Yuji Matsumoto	632
A Multi-Purpose Electronic Dictionary for Morphological Analyzers	Yasuharu Den	640
Corpus Linguistic Study of the Japanese Language: Towards the Development of New Research Areas and Methods	Tadaharu Tanomura	647
Research on Japanese Pedagogy Using a Corpus of Contemporary Japanese	Yuriko Sunakawa	656
Application of Large-Scale Balanced Corpora to Language Planning and Education: Through the Compilation of Word Lists and Kanji Character Lists of Contemporary Japanese	Makiro Tanaka	665
Japanese Semantic Analysis Using Balanced Corpus of Contemporary Written Japanese	Manabu Okumura and Kiyooki Shirai	673

Survey Papers

Lisp, an Artificial Intelligence Language, at Present and in Future	Seiji Koide and Hideaki Takeda	681
Crossing the Semantic Gap — Towards the Understanding of Image and Video Contents —	Ichiro Ide and Keiji Yanai	691

Lecture Series: "Knowledge Based Software Engineering" (3)

A Discussion on Knowledge Architecture of Software Engineers	Masaaki Hashimoto and Jiro Kuriyama	700
--	-------------------------------------	-----

Turnaround Meeting

Turnaround Meeting for Special Issue "Intelligent Systems"	Hiroshi Yamakawa, Chie Morita and Takahira Yamaguchi	708
---	--	-----

AI Frontier

Content-Oriented Approach to Organization of Theories and Its Utilization — Organizing Learning/Instructional Theories and Building a Theory-aware Authoring System Based on Ontological Engineering —	Yusuke Hayashi, Jacqueline Bourdeau and Riichiro Mizoguchi	721
---	--	-----

Technical Papers

Abstract		746
----------------	--	-----