

Matters to be attended when writing papers submitted to annual conferences of the Japanese Society for Artificial Intelligence

- When writing the manuscript, observe the laws related to Copyright Law of Japan, etc. Please pay attention to the following items pertaining to copyright, portrait right, personal information etc.
 - ✓ Do not infringe the rights of other people's copyrights, portrait rights, honor, privacy, etc.
 - ✓ In quoting the copyrighted work of others, confirm that it is complying with the copyright law and conforming to fair practices, and that quoting is inevitable, and within the scope of legitimate use, the quoted part is a work already been published, and the source is clearly indicated.
 - ✓ Do not infringe the rights of the right holder even in the quotation of the author's own copyrighted work
 - ✓ Appropriate measures shall be taken so that individuals cannot identify personal information such as address, name, body condition, occupation, video about living individuals obtained from experiments or other works. Also, in describing information related to individuals and corporations, consideration should be given to anonymization, etc. by fully considering academic necessity.
 - ✓ Information obtained under a specific contract is dealt with in compliance with the contract, and it is legitimate use or an appropriate disclosure method.
 - ✓ It shall not promote or recommend illegal acts such as crime

- Please acknowledge the following items regarding application for presentation.
 - ✓ Your submission may be assigned to a session different from the desired category
 - ✓ There is a possibility that it will be a different presentation format than the authors' desire
 - ✓ It is impossible to submit application, replacement, withdrawal after the deadline in principle